

DIANA FRANKENBURGER

djfran2@uky.edu

SUMMARY

Prenatal Education Coordinator for UK HealthCare. Create and provide patient appropriate education for diverse populations served by a regional healthcare center. Create patient education that meets health literacy needs. Manage prenatal education program and class content for instructors. Adept at collaboration with multiple disciplines to provide up to date services.

SKILLS

Trained to provide patient specific education for diverse populations with appropriate health literacy and developed multiple educational offerings. Created a collaborative to provide prenatal education for pregnant teens meeting their specific needs in clinic and school settings. Provided and scheduled prenatal group education for women in medically assisted treatment for opioid addiction including assistance in transitioning from clinic to hospital to postpartum.

Created education for our 4 clinics to support breastfeeding during our Baby Friendly Initiative and oriented staff and physicians to their role. Authored blog on prenatal topics for hospital website.

Educate patients in the clinic and hospital setting and educate staff to provide optimum prenatal education. Provide support and education to new nurses and residents during their orientation process. Teach prenatal classes, choose educational materials and oversee instructors in Childbirth Preparation Program.

Certifications: RNC-OB (in-patient obstetrics), 2011-present, Certified Childbirth Educator, 2012-present, Certified Lactation Specialist, 2017-present

EXPERIENCE

10/2011 to Current

Prenatal Education Coordinator

U. K. HealthCare — Lexington, KY

Oversee childbirth education program, and provide education to patients in clinic and classroom setting. Provide prenatal education to diverse groups including pregnant teens, women with substance use disorder, and high risk patients. Evaluate prenatal education program and choose class offerings and materials. Represent UK HealthCare on Healthy Babies are Worth the Wait through March of Dimes, and participate in providing education to patients and staff on prematurity prevention.

08/2010 to 12/2011

Adjunct Clinical Faculty

Bluegrass Community College — Lexington, KY

Clinical Instructor in long term care, medical surgical nursing, and obstetrics. Oversaw clinical experience, evaluated skills and student presentations.

01/2001 to 10/2011

Staff Nurse

U. K. HealthCare — Lexington, KY

Labor and Delivery staff nurse providing direct patient care. Team leader determining patient assignments, assisting with surgery and delivery. Unit representative on Magnet Committee, hospital Quality and Safety Committee. Represented hospital at Magnet Conference.

05/1984 to 01/2001 Staff Nurse

U. K. Healthcare — Lexington, KY

Staff nurse providing direct in-patient care to patients with varying diagnoses. Oriented nurses and represented unit on Magnet Committee, Quality and Safety committee and scheduling committee.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

2016 Master of Science: Nursing Education
Benedictine University — Springfield, IL, USA

2010 Bachelor of Science: Nursing
University of Kentucky — Lexington, KY, USA

1984 Associate of Applied Science: Nursing
Lexington Technical Institute — Lexington, KY, USA

1980 Bachelor of Science: Social Work
Morehead State University — Morehead, KY, United States

ACTIVITIES AND HONORS

Cheryl Smith Nursing Professional Advancement Award, May 2018 UK Healthcare
AWHONN member, 2012-present
Kentucky Perinatal Association member, 2015-present
Executive Lead, UK HealthCare March for Babies Campaign, March of Dimes, 2015-2018
Legend in Nursing, 2011 UK Health Care